

PROSPECTUS 2024 - 25

► Foreword

: Keeping pace with the changing objectives and purpose of Education, National Gems Higher Secondary School envisages to set achievable and tangible targets for its young learners in accordance with their core competencies and strengths.

It strives firstly, to broaden the knowledge and perspective of the students, providing education in the most appropriate skills and techniques and infusing a zest for “learning to be” rather than “learning to do”.

Secondly, it seeks to develop a harmonious personality by inculcating the right values and attitudes and by enforcing strict discipline in and outside its premises.

Thirdly, it emphasizes on the development of critical, analytical, problem solving and decision-making abilities to enable every individual student to be a powerful force for socio-economic Progress and Change.

The school, thus, is committed to its mission towards greater heights, not only in academics but also in the field of co-curricular activities, for the holistic development of every individual student.
